Defending Tennessee’s Civil War Structures Research Worksheet Part 1 (H2)

Name ______________________ ______________________

Picture # _____ Period _____ Grade _____

Part 1: Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest has cavalry units that are operating raiding parties in your area. You are part of an intelligence team for the Tenn 123rd Infantry Co. under Major General Buell. Your Commander has given you a photograph of the area. Your task is to identify all the structures in the photograph that could easily be destroyed, and analyze the picture for possible areas of weakness.

• Find your group’s assigned photo on the Library of Congress website www.loc.gov
• Observe the picture.

What is the title of your photograph?

What do you observe in the picture?

What human made structures are visible and what do they appear to be constructed with?

• Click the 1st tab “About this Item” and continue.

Does it state who the Creator(s) is? ______ If so, who? ______________________________

Does it state the Date Created/Published? ______ If so, when __________________________

What is the Medium (type of photograph)? ________________________________
Is there a summary? _____ If so, what information does it give? ________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

• Use the “Back” button to return to the picture. Click on the 3rd tab over “JPEG 100 kb”. When the image opens, explore the picture again using the control key and + and – keys on your keyboard.

What additional things do you observe? ________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

What questions do you have about this photo? ________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________